

Planner View — Recommended Reassignments

Order window 24 Jun – 5 Jul 2024 · 472 orders reviewed · 66 reassignments recommended

The recommendation in one line. Of the 472 orders that cannot be filled completely where they sit, we recommend moving 66 to a different distribution center. This fills 40,771 more cases, raises the fill rate from 90.5% to 93.3%, avoids $52,416 of customer penalties, and costs $57,401 in extra freight — a net gain of $1,929,835.

	Leave everything as is	Apply the 66 moves	Difference
Cases delivered	1,311,570	1,352,341	+40,771
Fill rate	90.47%	93.28%	+2.81 pts
Customer penalties	$84,749	$32,333	−$52,416
Freight cost	$565,479	$622,880	+$57,401
Net value	$44,365,994	$46,295,828	+$1,929,835

Every move respects stock, dock appointments, picking capacity and the requested delivery date.

Why these orders move

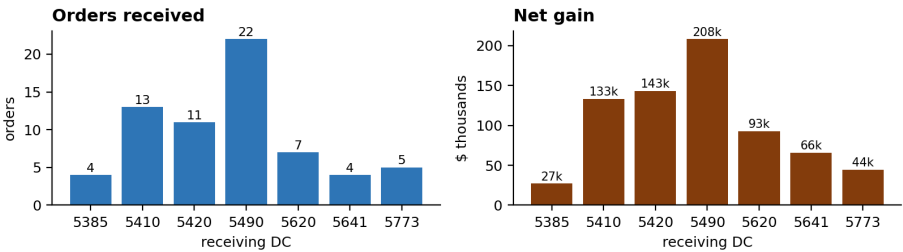

An order moves only when the receiving DC can fill it at least 5 percentage points and 100 cases better than where it sits now, and only when that gain is worth more than the extra freight. Orders that already fill well are left alone.

What to check before releasing

- Stock at the receiving DC is committed. The plan assumes the free stock shown is still free. Re-run it if a large order has arrived since. The dataset is fixed and not live.
- No forecast reserve, no holiday calendar. No stock is held back for the receiving DC’s own upcoming orders, and ship dates avoid weekends but not holidays. Holiday days are not known in the dataset.
